The matinee days have come. The saddest of the year. When little Johnny sits and twits And his up all with fear. He looks the freckled avian which We serve at dinner time. He does not like it when he has No tenal fence to climb.

He's afraid to sit the table With contumacious serpent. And while the meal is away, Secure a nylon green. Then take the bottle somewhere else And turn it on a stone. And eat it, hot and seeds and all. Then hurry home and groan.

The matinee days have come To displace the P. M. hour upon. The freckled little boys. They always make their meals—feats Upon those picked toes soon. Thus every night they fall with joy The pericure upon.

GREAT SNAKES!

Vanceburg Man Steps on One and Fun Was a Mile Wide.

A special grapevine from the Capital of the State of Lewis says Mr. Joseph Harris, a merchant and mill proprietor of South Vanceburg, on arising from his bed placed his bare foot on something that made his hair rise on end.

Investigation revealed beneath the bed an enormous spotted snake.

After turning over several articles of furniture in the fury of assault, Mr. Harris succeeded in killing the snake, which covered a nine and one-half foot measure from tip to tip.

It was a specimen of the genus popularly known as house snake, not venomous, but never a welcome guest.

The temperature wave having rolled past, all the saloons are again in full swing at Vanceburg.

Deafness Cannot Be Cured

By local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube gets inflamed you have a running sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and the tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever. Nine cases out of ten are caused by catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by HALL'S CATARRH CURE, sent for free.
